The Textbook + McGraw-Hill Connect = A! (at least it did for me)

By J.R. NC

As someone who had never taken a Corporate Finance class prior to MBA coursework, I was able to easily understand the concepts I needed to learn. However, I believe the combination of the textbook and the McGraw-Hill Connect online platform is the main reason why I found it easier (although still very challenging and time-consuming). The online supplement made it easier to grasp the concepts. The homework portion was exceptionally helpful - after submitting the work, the connect platform gives you the step-by-step solutions / formulas to help you grasp the concept. Get the textbook and sign up for the online platform and you will have a great experience, in my opinion.
