Changed my life...

By A Customer

I'm only 20 years old. But this actually made me change all my friends and my life. You know how every day is diferent? I mean one day is good, then the next day sucks? Well, after I read this book, every day since then has been good. And I mean more than good. It's like every day is a miracle. 1 week after a copy was given to me, I went back on this, and ordered 5 more copies to give to my friends. I wish I read this a long time ago.

A Moving Book

By J. S. Mayo

That's a literal title. As a spiritual counselor, I am constantly seeking ways to increase and improve my knowledge. While all knowledge is always available to us, we often need to be reminded of what we already know. This is what I was doing one particular day while scanning the spiritual section of a bookstore. I decided to pass on purchasing anything that day and started to leave. As I was walking out of that section of the store, from the corner of my eye, I saw something move. I turned back and there behind several other books lying flat against a shelf was one copy of "The Superbeings". I had never heard of the title or the author, but plucked the book from its hiding place, and without even reading its cover for hints of what truths lay inside, I walked to the counter and paid for it. I stayed up that night and finished the book. Then I went back over it carefully. Made lots of notes in my spiritual diary, my daytimer, the magnetic board on the refrigerator. Anywhere I might be. My creative juices began to flow. Mr. Price inspired me in more ways than can be mentioned here. The most important? The knowledge that I didn't have "to have it all together" to begin sharing what I knew as The Truth. To this day, I continue to review and study this book from time to time. On days when I'm not living up to my full potential, I keep the audio playing in the background of my office or car. It does great things for your subconscious. Try it! This is a MUST tool for your spiritual development and for simply remembering who you are.

Are You Ready?

By John P. Morgan

There are a lot of people who believe in God. If I remember it right, it's something like 70-72% of Americans believe in God. That's good...that's very good. But I wonder how many people from that percentage "know" God? Now before you answer that, I want you to really ask yourself, "Do I know God or do I know a lot of things that other people have told me about God? Do I know a lot of dogmas, creeds, and rites that I just kind of accepted because I felt like it was something one did?"

I asked myself that question about 20 some years ago and the truth was I didn't know God...oh, I believed in God...but I didn't know God...I didn't feel God...I didn't allow myself to get still long enough to feel that Eternal Presence all around me and all within me because the bottom line was I was afraid. I was scared that I might be "entertaining" the devil. How many of you reading this review has heard that? Oh, don't meditate...don't quiet your mind...you have to be vigilant...you have to live in fear...you have to always be alert because if you're not, the devil is gonna get you!

Nonsense.

We must allow ourselves to go within and be still. We must allow ourselves to get quiet, centered and open ourselves to something much more than this world of form can provide and this book can be a guide to doing that.

Of course, you must be ready...you must be willing to become 100% responsible for your life and to too many people, that's just plain scary. "Oh, no, I can't be responsible for my life...I need other people to tell me how to live...what to believe...how to think...what to do!" Giving up your power and letting someone else influence the way you live, the way you vote, the way you think is trafficking with the "devil" more than meditation could ever be.

Jesus said, "The poor will be with you always..." He's right. They will be. The poor in Spirit, the poor in responsibility, the poor in knowing who and what they really are. We are gods in the making. Our life is 99.9% invisible. When you die, you leave behind the vehicle you used during this trip, but where the heck is the driver? Your True Being is Invisible...your True Being is God...You are God...I am God...Everything is God...could you imagine how incredible the world would be if everyone knew this on some level? Nobody would try and take advantage of others because we would really know that what we did to somebody else, we did to ourselves...the golden rule would be the only rule we would have to honor because all other rules would follow accordingly.

So if you're not ready for this book, don't buy it. If you like having everyone tell you how to think and how to believe DO NOT BUY THIS BOOK but then again, don't condemn others for not believing exactly the way you do, either, because there are people...like me...who takes the promises of God very seriously..."Be still and know I AM God..." The promises of God are not written in a book, they're written on your heart, but one must become still enough to know this...not believe this...but KNOW THIS.

God is right where we are. Always has been. Always will be.

Time to live out this Truth. This book can be guide.
