The Faith of Desmond Doss not only tells the incredible true story of Desmond Doss, the inspiration for the movie Hacksaw Ridge, but more importantly, it tells the reader about his faith. Desmond refused to carry a gun, but that doesn't mean he went into battle unarmed. He faced combat with two things more valuable than any man-made weapon—his Bible and prayer. The message of this small book is that through Bible study and prayer, anyone can develop a relationship with God, and achieve greater faith.

Inspiring booklet and quick read.

By B. Barnhart

This booklet tells the story of Desmond Doss in a quick, to the point way. It is a great read for someone who wants a brief summary of the testimony of Doss's life. Thank God for men who follow the conviction's God puts in their hearts. Many men's lives and no doubt souls were saved because of Ross's convictions. Truly inspirational. What do you hold to?

An Ordinary Man Alive in Christ

By Gary Scoggins

The life of Desmond Doss shows that he and God had a relationship that was so alive that he demonstrated it in fierce battle during WWII to carry wounded soldiers to safety. This is his story, a great read.
